

FIRE SAFETY INSTRUCTION

Dear residents and guests,

All the persons within the territory of the Republic of Lithuania have to comply with the requirements of the general fire safety regulations and in case of the fire, take measures to save people, protect material assets and extinguish the fire.

You are required to follow the general fire safety regulations:

- Do not turn on all the electrical heating devices in the room simultaneously (kettle, iron, water heater);
- When leaving a room, turn off the TV, radio, lamps and other electrical appliances;
- It is forbidden to bring into the room and store the materials that could cause a fire;
- It is forbidden to cover, dismount or otherwise neutralise the smoke detectors in the rooms;
- We would like to remind that it is dangerous to cover the floor and desk lamps with flammable materials;
- It is forbidden to smoke on the premises;
- Try to remember the exits and the locations of fire-cocks and fire extinguishers.

In case of the fire in your room:

- Immediately call the emergency number 112;
- If you are unable to suppress the fire, leave the room and close the door, do not lock it;
- You have to notify the personnel on duty about the fire;
- Remove from the dangerous area and act according to the administration's or the fire safety instructions.

In case of the fire not in your room:

- Immediately call the emergency number 112;
- Close the windows and doors and leave your room;
- If the corridors and staircases are filled with smoke and it is impossible to leave the premises, stay in your room and open the windows. A tightly closed door can save you from the dangerous temperature for a long time. To avoid the smoke inhalation, cover the gaps and ventilation canals using damp towels or bed linen;
- Try to notify the administration about your location by telephone;
- After the arrival of the firefighters, come to the window and call for help;
- It is forbidden to use a lift for evacuation.

The losses of the fire caused by you will be recovered from you under the procedure stipulated by the law of the Republic of Lithuania.
